Dear Commander:

I would like to congratulate you on the distinct honor of leading your Post to over 100% in membership for 2019. The enclosed streamer with my sincere gratitude for your Post's membership recruitment and retention efforts.

However, our job is far from over. I am confident we will accomplish our membership mission with the national membership staff are ready to assist you any way with the 2020 National Membership Program

For instance, do you realize by achieving 100% membership you are now entered into a drawing to win a $1,000 stipend (cash) at the 121st VFW National Convention in Reno, NV? To learn more about other membership awards (including All-American) please refer to the membership Program on the VFW website. Please contact the membership assistance locating the program or have questions regarding recruiting email, Membership@vfw.org.

As one of the leaders of our great organization, Carl, you are a great leader, but with your continued efforts, I am confident we will attain our goals.

Yours in true comradeship,
